Cathay Pacific to Honor Fares

The Hong Kong-based airline mistakenly sold business-class seats on August flights from Vietnam to New York for about $675 return. Prices on the same route in July and September cost $16,000. The airline admitted that it “made a mistake,” but said it would honor the tickets. The fares were reported by travel bloggers on 31 December and later withdrawn by Cathay Pacific.

Mac Jaehnert, from Milwaukee, Wisconsin was alerted to the bargain prices on Twitter and seized the chance to book a first class ticket from Boston to Hong Kong, and an onward flight to Hanoi in business class for a total of $1,220. He had always dreamed of having a first class ticket, he told the BBC, but as a travel blogger and social media manager for a tech company, he usually travelled in economy class. “A one way ticket on Cathay, first [class] is like $18,000 and that’s quite a bit out of my price range.” “When I did the math, what I paid is at about a 95% discount,” he said.

31. What does the word “fares” mean in the title?

- (A) an amusement park
- (B) a sandwich
- (C) an honorable person

- (A) It flew from New York to Vietnam.
- (B) It charged the incorrect amount for some seats.
- (C) It flew on the wrong day.
- (D) It moved to Boston.

34. How much should the $675 return ticket have cost?
- (A) $18,000
 - (B) $16,000
 - (C) $1,220
 - (D) $10,000
35. What does “when I did the math” mean in the final sentence?
- (A) When he caculated the costs.
 - (B) When he took a vacation.
 - (C) When he flew home.
 - (D) When he took a math class.

US Democratic Senator Elizabeth Warren — an outspoken critic of Wall Street and nemesis of US President Donald Trump — on Monday entered next year’s race for the White House. The 69-year-old progressive announced that she was launching an exploratory committee for president, becoming the first major candidate in what is set to be an extraordinarily crowded Democratic primary, united by a singular focus on unseating the Republican Trump. The move would help Warren raise funds and hire more staff early in the campaign cycle — an effort in which she already leads most other potential Democratic candidates. With as many as three dozen Democrats weighing possible presidential bids, the road to the nomination will be arduous.

36. What is the White House?
- (A) Senator Elizabeth Warren’s mother’s house.
 - (B) The home and office of the president of the U.S.A.
 - (C) The home of Wall Street.
 - (D) A place where ice creams are made.

 - (C) writer
 - (D) senator

38. What has Elizabeth Warren launched?
- (A) an exploratory committee for president
 - (B) a candidate
 - (C) a president for the U.S.A.
 - (D) a Republican for a party
39. What does Warren want to be a candidate for?
- (A) a senator
 - (B) a staff
 - (C) U.S. president
 - (D) a democratic
40. In the final sentence “arduous” means?
- (A) easiest
 - (B) difficult
 - (C) funny
 - (D) clever
